CLOTHIER & HEAD, P.S. RECEIVES MARKETING ACHIEVEMENT AWARD FOR BEST CORPORATE IDENTITY

SEATTLE – On June 7, 2007, Clothier & Head, P.S. received the Marketing Achievement Award (MAA) for Best Corporate Identity from the Association for Accounting Marketing (AAM). The award was presented at AAM's 18th Annual Conference, Uncharted Waters, in Savannah, Georgia.

The AAM-MAA's were presented in recognition of outstanding achievements in the areas of accounting marketing, professional services, and communications. Accounting firms from all over the United States and Canada competed in two divisions — under $15 million in revenues and over $15 million in revenues.

The panel of judges included professionals in the advertising, consulting, and marketing fields. This year, nearly 500 people attended and 200 entries were submitted for judging in 17 different categories. Some of the categories included corporate Identity, web site design, collateral materials, niche business development, and print advertising for CPA firms.
