CLOTHIER & HEAD, P.S. NAMES W. DANIEL CASE, CPA PRINCIPAL

SEATTLE -- Clothier & Head, P.S. has named Dan Case, CPA as Principal of the firm. The designation, shared by 11 members, recognizes senior level employees for significant commitment and contribution to the firm as a whole. As the firm's Director of the Construction and Real Estate Services Niche for the last 2-1/2 years, Case played an instrumental role in developing the firm's niche. He will continue as the Director of Construction and Real Estate Services in his new role as Principal.

As a member of the firm since 2001, Dan is a Principal, Senior Accounting & Auditing Manager, and the Director of the Construction and Real Estate Services Niche at Clothier & Head. He has 25 years of experience serving both accounting and tax clients. He has provided litigation support for construction claims, bankruptcy accounting and served as a receiver. He performs and supervises audits, reviews and compilations along with complex tax returns. His focused industry niche experiences are in construction, manufacturing, distribution, service industries, and motorcycle dealerships (co-founder of a local Seattle dealership) - providing accounting, taxation, accounting project management and job costing systems, internal controls and business consultation.

Dan is an active member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the Washington Society of Certified Public Accountants, the Associated Builders and Contractors, and the Washington State Motorcycle Dealership Association. Dan is also the Audit Committee Chair of the Meydenbauer Yacht Club Endowment Trust and the Co-Chair of the Meydenbauer Yacht Club Youth Sailing Club.
