CLOTHIER & HEAD CLOSING OFFICE TO VOLUNTEER AT SEATTLE'S RONALD MCDONALD HOUSE CHARITIES

SEATTLE -- Clothier & Head's "Community Service Day" program is a long-time, standing tradition. Twice a year, all business related matters are set aside as the firm closes its doors and devotes the day to a local volunteer project. For their 2008 Spring Community Service Day, the firm was both honored and privileged to partner with the Ronald McDonald House Charities of Seattle to help them, in any way possible, provide what has truly come to be known as a "home-away-from-home" to many families with seriously ill children from across the nation.

Kicking off the community service events was a "House Pantry Drive" organized by the firm's Volunteer Committee to run for the three days prior to Community Service Day. During this time, members of the firm raised 2500 food items, toiletries, bedding, storage supplies, and a monetary contribution of $3,333 to be donated to Ronald McDonald House Charities of Seattle in addition to their volunteer efforts for the day.

However, aside from the practical support and generous contributions given, it was all of the compassion and altruism witnessed throughout the entire project that merited its conception. Judy Adams, Manager of Volunteer Services for RMHC of Western WA and AK, graciously stated, "The work you did here today made such a big difference...Your attitudes were as inspirational as your hard work. Thank you from all of us at the Ronald McDonald House;" and
