CLOTHIER & HEAD, P.S. JOINS AGN INTERNATIONAL, LTD.

SEATTLE -- Clothier & Head, P.S., one of Seattle's leading local CPA firms, has been admitted to membership in AGN International, Ltd., one of the world's foremost associations of independent CPA, accounting and consulting firms.

"Clothier & Head's niche focus and progressive management structure are a great addition to AGN-NA," said Larry Kuechler, Chairman of AGN International – North America, Inc., and member of the executive committee of Berger/Lewis Accountancy Corporation, San Jose, California.

"With the addition of Clothier & Head, we've filled the gaps we had in the Northwest," Kuechler said, adding that AGN admitted Kernutt Brandt Stokes in Eugene, Oregon two years ago.

The 34-year-old firm becomes AGN's 55th North American member firm and the third firm admitted in 2006.

With over 200 accounting and business consulting members around the world, which together have over $1 billion in revenue, AGN International, Ltd. ranks as the 14th largest, accounting association in the world. AGN's mission is to help its members enhance profits, share information through better use of technology and collaborate on servicing clients as effectively as possible. AGN International – North America, Inc. is headquartered in Denver. The International office is located in London.
